June 9, 2010

TO: All Commanding Officers

FROM: Commanding Officer, Personnel and Training Bureau

SUBJECT: 2010 NAPOA NATIONAL TRAINING CONFERENCE

The National Asian Peace Officers Association (NAPOA) will be hosting the 2010 National Training Conference in Boston, Massachusetts from August 9 – 13, 2010. The National Training Conference will offer topics concerning Homeland Security, Terrorism, Asian gang trends, Asian gang investigation techniques, Equal Employment Opportunity processes and bridging the cultural gap. The instructors are recognized experts or specialists in their fields and this Conference will provide valuable insight on contemporary issues facing law enforcement. This conference will also give the attendees the opportunity to meet and collaborate with local, state and federal personnel from law enforcement agencies throughout the country.

Department employees who wish to participate in the NAPOA Training Conference will be afforded the opportunity to attend this conference while on-duty status. However, Department employees who wish to attend the conference will be responsible for all related expenses. The Department will not be responsible for any costs other than the attendee's salary. All interested employees will need their Commanding Officer's approval and all travel authorities shall be processed through the employee's respective Division of assignment. This is a worthwhile conference and any benefit gained by the officers would only serve to benefit the Department.

If there are any questions, please contact Lieutenant Martin A. Baeza, Personnel and Training Bureau, at (213) 486-7090.

APPROVED:

STEPHEN R. JACOBS, Commander
Chief of Staff
Office of the Chief of Police
